SHORT BIOGRAPHY

Robert T. Farley is Senior Counsel with the New York State Senate.

Prior to joining the State Senate,
Mr. Farley served as Deputy Attorney General for New York State.

Before that,
he worked as a Counsel to the Minority Leader, Clarence “Rapp” Rappleyea, in the New York State Assembly.

Bob was also a five time, elected county legislator in Schenectady, from 1993 to 2011,
and served as both minority leader and chairman of the board.

Currently an adjunct professor of law at UAlbany, Bob has also taught at Albany Law School, Syracuse College of Law and Union College.

Prior to his government service,
Mr. Farley was a trial attorney, with the Albany law firm of McNamee, Lochner, Titus and Williams.

Bob received a Bachelor’s Degree in Geophysics and History, Magna Cum Laude, from UAlbany, his Juris Doctorate, from Hofstra Law School in Long Island, where he was Associate Editor of the Law Journal, and finally, his LLM, from Albany Law School, Summa Cum Laude, where he finished first in his class.

The father of two daughters,
Katie, an attorney, and Lizzie a law student,
Robert Farley lives with his family, at their home, in Scotia, New York.
