Dear Cruise Guest

It is my pleasure to welcome you to my hometown - Skagen - at the very tip of Denmark and the European continent.

Over 100 years ago Skagen was the region's leading royal borough, although the town didn't have any streets or squares. However it had a harbor and a fishing fleet - which both brought wealth. This period of prosperity was superseded by flooding and sand migration which destroyed Skagen. From the mid-1800s things took a turn for the better again and at the end of the century artists discovered this remote town with its great contrasts in the landscape and its "exotic" local population. Even the famous Danish fairy-tale author Hans Christian Andersen lost his heart to Skagen.

It is a breathtaking scenery and light still inspire artists, poets and writers. The sun shines for around 2,000 hours annually, which makes Skagen the sunniest place in Denmark. The Skagen area is a natural beauty spot, attracting visitors from all over the world.

From the 19th century Skagen is still a busy fishing port and in 1961 it was declared a World Heritage site. Tourism comes next in importance and the value of the fish landed. Tourism is the second largest destination in Denmark outside of our capital Copenhagen.

By your visit to Skagen and welcome back another time.

Restaurants

Skagen is renowned throughout Denmark for its high quality food products and delicacies, and not least it's wonderful freshly caught seafood, which you can enjoy at the many cafes and restaurants along the pedestrian street or in one of the enchanting, open-air fish restaurants in the old, former fish warehouses at the marina front. The chefs at the many restaurants each have their own signature dish giving you an unforgettable experience. In addition to seafood you can look forward to the famous, locally produced Skagen ham, organic Angus steaks, hand-brewed beer and aromatic schnapps based on locally picked herbs. Bon appétit!
