Adjunct Professor of Law

January 11, 2022

My Dear Students

Welcome to Business Law 220 – The Law of Contracts.

I am so excited that you have graciously decided to take our course this semester.

As we return to the University for another year, please know that I appreciate the fact that we live in challenging times.

I am excited that our course will be live and in person in Room 217 in the Massry Center For Business Building.

We only use Blackboard to a limited extent, so we have developed a home page for our class.

The home page for such website is: <http://www.bobfarley.us/0300lawclasses/315businesslaw/businesslaw.htm>

A complete schedule for the class can be found at our website at:

<http://www.bobfarley.us/0300lawclasses/315businesslaw/schedule.pdf>

No textbook is required for the class, as all necessary information and materials will be available for your review on our website, but for those who love textbooks, Anderson's Business Law and the Legal Environment, 23rd Edition, ISBN: 978-1-305-57508-0, is available at the University bookstore, or online via Cengage Learning.

The complete syllabus for our course can also be found on our website at:

<http://www.bobfarley.us/0300lawclasses/315businesslaw/syllabus.pdf>

The grading standards and format for the class can be found on our website at:

<http://www.bobfarley.us/0300lawclasses/315businesslaw/format.pdf>

Please know that I will do my very best to make our course entertaining, interesting, informative and fun. I love all my students very much, and am invested in your success. Quite simply, I am a teacher, and I succeed when you succeed.

A statement of my teaching philosophy can be found on our website at:

<http://www.bobfarley.us/0100aboutbob/philosophy.pdf>

Please feel free to contact me at the above listed telephone number or email address at any time (but if you would kindly not call after 11pm or before 7am, unless it's a dire emergency, I would be most grateful).

We will get through any challenges we have together, and we are going to have an awesome, fun and interesting time.

I so look forward to getting to know you, and being your guide through the wonderful world of Business Law!

See you at our first class on January 27th!

My Warmest Personal Regards,

Sincerely,

Robert T. Farley
